

Rethinking Incarnation: Theology, Phenomenology and Deconstruction

A conference co-organized by
Université de Montpellier 3/CRISES,
Institut Protestant de Théologie-Montpellier,
University of Ljubljana (Faculty of Theology),
University of Vienna (Institute of Philosophy),
Science and Research Centre Koper (Institute for Philosophical Studies).

Montpellier 24-25 February 2017

* * *

Friday, 24 February
Institut Protestant, 13 Rue Louis Perrier, Salle Bois

9.30-10.30 Accueil

- Olivier Abel (Institut Protestant de Théologie-Montpellier) et Michael Staudigl (University of Vienna): Introduction au colloque
- Elian Cuvillier (Institut Protestant de Théologie-Montpellier): L'incarnation comme déclousion dans l'évangile de Jean

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

11.00-12.30 Panel 1: Incarnation and embodiment

- Jason W. Alvis (University of Vienna): Being in the Flesh
- Michael Staudigl (University of Vienna): The Body as a Medium of Transcendence

12.30-14.30 Lunch

14.30-16.00 Panel 2: Michel Henry et l'incarnation

- Jean-François Lavigne (Université de Montpellier 3): L'incarnation du Verbe dans l'interprétation henrienne du christianisme: la chair sauve-t-elle ?
- Grégori Jean (Université de Nice Sophia-Antipolis): L'insu de la chair comme phénomène de l'incarnation: Michel Henry et l'idée d'une « théorie idéaliste du corps »

16.00-16.30 Coffee break

The conference is a part of the Slovenian-Austrian bilateral research project (ARRS J6-7325; FWF I 2785):

The Return of the Religious in Postmodern Thought

16.30-18.00 Panel 3: Incarnation in phenomenology and hermeneutics

- Branko Klun (University of Ljubljana): Incarnation and De-carnation in the Hermeneutics of Gianni Vattimo
- Robert Petkovšek (University of Ljubljana): Divine Body and Incarnation in the Mimetic Theory

18.00-18.30 Break

18.30-20.00 Plenary lecture

- John D. Caputo (Professor Emeritus, Syracuse University and Villanova University): The Existance of God

* * *

Saturday, 25 February

Université Montpellier 3 (site St Charles), Rue du Professeur Henri Serre, Salle 005

9.00-11.00 Panel 4: Ricœur on Incarnation

- Ludger Hagedorn (IWM Vienna): Impermeable to Reflection and Inaccessible to Human Mastery – The Enigma of Flesh and Sexuality in Ricœur's Thought
- Jean-Luc Amalric (Université de Montpellier 3): La médiation vulnérable: puissance, acte et passivité chez Ricœur
- Janez Vodičar (University of Ljubljana): Incarnation in Light of the Cross in the Thought of Paul Ricœur

11.00-11.00 Coffee break

11.30-13.00 Panel 5: Incarnation and the Question of Alterity (Femininity, Sexuality, Nature)

- Nadja Furlan Štante (Science and Research Centre Koper): Incarnation in Ecofeminist Hermeneutics
- Lenart Škof (Science and Research Centre Koper): God, Incarnation in the Feminine, and Imaginary of the Third Presence

13.00-15.00 Lunch break

15.00-17.00 Panel 6: Kénose et incarnation

- Joeri Schrijvers (KU Leuven): Becoming Flesh (How the Word Became World – Incarnation in Contemporary Philosophy)
- Jean-Daniel Causse (Université de Montpellier 3): Dépouillement du divin et naissance d'un corps
- Guilhen Antier (Institut Protestant de Théologie): Parole et chair: une méditation en compagnie de Luther et de Lacan

17.00-17.30 Coffee break

17.30-19.00 Closing lecture and conference conclusions

- Jeffrey W. Robbins (Lebanon Valley College): Interrogations: John Caputo and the Future of Radical Theology

The conference is a part of the Slovenian-Austrian bilateral research project (ARRS J6-7325; FWF I 2785):

The Return of the Religious in Postmodern Thought